Amazing Grace; Pg 2

A-ma-zing grace! how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found, was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears re-lieved;
How pre-cious did that grace ap-pear the hour I first be-lieved!

Thro' man-y dan-gers, toils and snares, I have al-read-y come;
'Tis grace hath bro't me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thou-sand years, bright shin-ing as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first be-gun.

SUGGESTIONS....

By the time students reach this song, they understand hand positions. The fingering marked for the hands alone versions indicate a change in hand position.

As always it is recommended that each version be memorized, so no fingering is included for the hands together in parallel version. By this time a student should just about be able to look at his/her hands and play in parallel with very little practice.

The “easy” contrary version has a steady quarter note bass line so the rhythm should be emphasized so it is done well. The other more difficult contrary version has a rather even type of bass line as well, but more difficult since it is an eighth note pattern. Both versions are very nice sounding, so students should really try to be able to play and also sing as they play....and memorize well.

You can tell, I love this song! I may even write another contrary version later that moves around the piano.
